

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

BREANNA M. BANE,

Defendant.

)
)
)
)
)
)
)

Criminal No. 19-165

OPINION

Pending before the court is a motion by counsel on behalf of defendant Breanna Bane (“Bane”) to modify the conditions of her bond (ECF No. 150). Bane is currently detained at the Allegheny County Jail (“ACJ”). She asks to be released from ACJ and placed in an inpatient drug treatment program. The government filed a response in opposition to the motion (ECF No. 161).

Factual and Procedural Background

On May 6, 2019, after being charged, Bane was released on bond. Among other conditions of bond, she agreed not to violate any federal, state or local law, and not to use or unlawfully possess narcotic drugs or controlled substances (ECF Nos. 24, 25). In January 2020, after Bane admitted that she violated conditions of her bond, the court added a condition to the terms of her bond, which required her to participate in a residential treatment program.

On May 20, 2020, Bane, pursuant to a plea agreement, pleaded guilty at Criminal Number 19-165 to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 400 grams or more of fentanyl and 100 grams or more of heroin, from March 2019 to May 1, 2019, in violation of 21 USC § 846. Bane faces a statutory mandatory minimum sentence of 10 years of imprisonment.

Bane was permitted to remain on bond pending sentencing, with the consent of the government. On July 17, 2020, the probation office filed a petition to revoke her bond based on new criminal charges (ECF No. 132). The court issued an arrest warrant with no bond to be set.

On August 12, 2020, Bane was indicted at Criminal Number 20-191 and charged with distribution and possession of a quantity of fentanyl on July 3, 2020. The government's opposition reviews some of the factual allegations about that offense. The sentencing hearing at Criminal Number 19-165 has been postponed indefinitely, at the request of both Bane and the government (ECF Nos. 140, 141).

Legal Analysis

Bane pleaded guilty to count 1 of the indictment at Criminal Number 19-165 and is now awaiting sentencing. Her release on bond is therefore governed by 18 U.S.C. § 3143. Bane's conviction in Criminal Number 19-165 is a controlled substance offense with a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(C). The restrictions on release set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) apply. That section states:

The judicial officer shall order that a person who has been found guilty of an offense in a case described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of subsection (f)(1) of section 3142 and is awaiting imposition or execution of sentence be detained unless –

(A) [1] the judicial officer finds there is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted; or

[2] an attorney for the Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed on the person; and

(B) the judicial officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community.

18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) (emphasis added).

The court must at least find that Bane is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community. Bane must demonstrate lack of flight risk and danger to the community by “clear and convincing evidence.” Id.

The court finds that Bane did not demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that she does not pose a danger to the community. Her motion presents no evidence in that regard. The government points to Bane’s prior violations of the conditions of her bond and the circumstances underlying the new criminal charges. The court agrees that Bane poses a risk of danger to the community if released.

Conclusion

The court sympathizes with Bane’s long struggle with drug addiction and is aware that participation in treatment programs is difficult at ACJ. She, however, pleaded guilty to a serious drug offense, is under indictment for another serious drug offense, and does not qualify for release on bond pending sentencing. For the reasons discussed above, Bane’s motion to modify the conditions of her bond (ECF No. 150) will be DENIED.

An appropriate order will be entered.

Dated: September 24, 2020

/s/ Joy Flowers Conti
Joy Flowers Conti
Senior United States District Judge